

IADC WELLCAP® WORKOVER-COMPLETION

The IADC WellCAP® Workover-Completion Course, offered in supervisor and fundamental levels, presents commonly used well control techniques in workover-completion operations. The latest information and technologies available are utilized to instruct maintaining control of the well.

Learning Objectives:

- Live Well Intervention Well Control
- Complications
- BOP Equipment
- Killing a Producing Well
- Pressure Control
- Regulations
- Surface Equipment
- Kick Warning Signs
- Remedial Fluids
- Constant Bottomhole Pressure Methods
- Kick warnings signs

Target Audience:

- Superintendents
- Supervisors
- Tool pushers
- Operators
- Helpers
- Asset managers
- Service company personnel
- Consultants
- Engineers

Certifications:

- IADC WellCAP®
- The Well Control School®

Course Duration: 3 days

IADC WellCAP® WORKOVER-COMPLETION, COILED TUBING, SNUBBING, WIRELINE

The IADC WellCAP® Workover-Completion, Coiled Tubing, Snubbing, Wireline course, offered in supervisor and fundamental levels, presents commonly used well control techniques applicable to workover-completion operations, along with three basic remedial well intervention services as it relates to coiled tubing, snubbing, and wireline activities. The latest information and technologies available are utilized to instruct maintaining control of the well during workover-completion, coiled tubing, snubbing and wireline operations. This course has a competency-based curriculum which meets and/or exceeds well control industry guidelines and standards set forth by IADC and The Well Control School. State-of-the-art simulators and interactive exercises are utilized to provide hands-on experience of real-life well control scenarios.

Learning Objectives:

- Live Well Intervention Well Control
- Complications
- BOP Equipment
- Killing a Producing Well
- Pressure Control
- Regulations
- Surface Equipment
- Kick Warning Signs
- Remedial Fluids
- Constant Bottomhole Pressure Methods
- Kick warnings signs

Target Audience:

- Superintendents
- Supervisors
- Tool pushers
- Operators
- Helpers
- Asset managers
- Service company personnel
- Consultants
- Engineers

Certifications:

- IADC WellCAP®
- The Well Control School®

Course Duration: 5 days

REGISTRATION & INFORMATION

www.wellcontrol.com

713-849-7400

